

August 18, 2023

AP US History CLT Meeting

1. The goals for our CLT are as follows:
 - a. To develop writing prompts for three periods in US History
 - b. To use the College Board rubrics for grading evaluation
 - c. Identify areas of student weakness and address the problems
 - d. Choose grading samples of high, medium, and low papers
2. Looked at student samples of last semester Urbanization essay and previously selected samples.
3. The data still must be organized for the future.
4. The first student writing prompt for this semester is being evaluated, and will be determined once the student academic level is determined through quizzes.